DAY

Our outing on a Sunday began with excitement. As boarders, we were expecting a day of fun, and this was a much-needed break from our routine. Our first stop was the food court, and then we wandered through vibrant shops. Later, we watched "Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari".

Boarding Holiday Aura

We had a fun day, cooking and learning. One team made a tasty meal, while the other learned to make ties. The highlight was baking a cake together, a true masterpiece of teamwork.

Indoor games are entertaining and offer a lot for everyone. Whether you like board games or something else, they provide fun. Enjoy them with friends for a lively atmosphere.

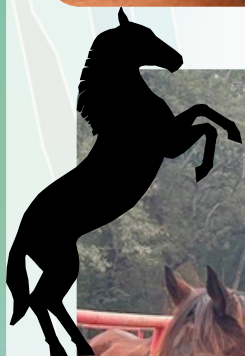

Movies

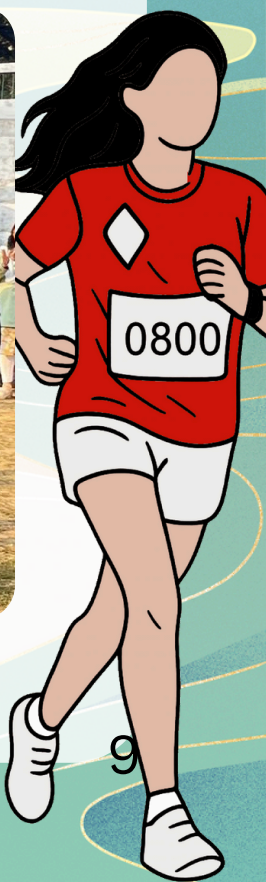

Gathering around in the common room, we boarders decided that a movie night was just what we needed to unwind after a long week of classes.

Someone suggested "Hawaa Hawaa," a film about skating.

Life at RCBH is filled with unique experiences, especially drawing with friends. Students gather with sketchbooks to create collaborative masterpieces that are displayed on the boarding house walls. These sessions foster creativity and provide a relaxing escape from academics.
