Tilak, Tulsi, Premchand Jayanti

21ST AUGUST, 2026

VEER & DHAIRYA

Veer Rakhecha and Dhairya Jindal delivered an inspiring BDBH speech highlighting Munshi Premchand's timeless literary works. They emphasized how his stories offer deep insights into human nature and moral values, resonating strongly with peers and encouraging them to explore classical literature.

ARNAV ARORA

Arnav Arora's soulful tabla performance captivated the audience with intricate beats and harmonious flow. Blending tradition and innovation, his technical mastery and emotional depth left everyone mesmerized, celebrating the enduring power of music to unite and inspire.

21ST AUGUST, 2026

Subodh, Azlaan, Shlok, Ishan, Aarush, Srijan, Shivam, Amritansh and Shaurya performing on the stage

Munshi Premchand's timeless story, brought to life through a brilliant play, profoundly explores the pure bond of childhood friendship against the harsh realities of growing social inequality. The emotional narrative captures two inseparable childhood companions whose paths diverge as one grows wealthy while the other struggles with poverty. Through powerful acting and poignant dialogue, the performance painfully exposes how the cold, calculating gap created by money can strain even the deepest affections, leaving a lasting impact on the audience.

"RUST IS THE FIRST STEP TO LOVE"

NAMAN AND PARTH

The audience was deeply moved by the strong and inspiring speeches given by Naman and Parth. They shared an outstanding address that commanded the room's attention. He offered thoughtful insights and meaningful reflections that captured everyone's interest, successfully elevating the academic and cultural spirit of the students dedicated to Tilak, Tulsi, and Premchand.

MANVENDRA C.DEB

The crowd was deeply moved by Manvendra's powerful and motivating speech. His compelling address held everyone's complete attention, presenting wise perspectives that gripped the room. His thoughtful words successfully lifted the intellectual and cultural mood of the students gathered to pay tribute to Tilak, Tulsi, and Premchand.

TEACHERS' DAY

5TH SEPTEMBER 2026

Raghav Mundra took the stage at BDBH with a heartfelt Teachers' Day speech that deeply resonated with everyone in the room. He spoke warmly about the invisible efforts teachers make every day, explaining how their patience and guidance shape students into better people. His sincere message brought a wave of gratitude to the auditorium, reminding everyone of the lifelong impact of a great mentor.

Teachers' Day, we honor the extraordinary legacy of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. He believed that true teachers are those who help us think for ourselves. More than a brilliant philosopher and statesman, he chose to define himself first as a teacher, proving that education is the cornerstone of any nation. By dedicating his birthday to the educators of our society, he reminded us that teaching is not just a profession, but a sacred mission shaping humanity.

"The true teachers are those who help us think for ourselves."

UNIVERSITY FAIR

19th SEPTEMBER, 2026

Exploring New Horizons, Inspiring Future Aspirations

The students of BDBH Hostel, Rajkumar College, Raipur, visited the University Fair held on the college campus. The event provided a valuable opportunity to explore higher education, discover diverse academic fields and gain insights into future career opportunities.

The students enthusiastically interacted with university representatives, explored various academic programmes and learned about emerging career prospects. The fair offered them a chance to broaden their knowledge, exchange ideas and gain valuable exposure beyond the classroom.

The visit was an enriching experience that encouraged students to reflect on their ambitions and future goals. It helped them appreciate the importance of informed decisions, continuous learning and academic excellence. The event concluded with lasting memories, new perspectives and renewed motivation to pursue their aspirations. A day of exploration, inspiration and opportunities that brought students one step closer to envisioning their future.

JANMASHTAMI

“A MAN IS MADE BY HIS BELIEFS.
AS HE BELIEVES, SO HE BECOMES.”

— Lord Krishna, Bhagavad Gita

Janmashtami is a joyful Hindu festival celebrating the birth of Lord Krishna, The Eighth Avatar of Lord Vishnu observed on the Eighth day of Bhadrapada. It is celebrated with great devotion through prayers, bhajans, fasting, temple decorations, and midnight celebrations. The students of BDBH celebrated this auspicious occasion with enthusiasm and devotion, remembering the teachings of Lord Krishna

॥ गणेश चतुर्थी ॥

THE SCHOOL CAMPUS ERUPTED INTO PURE ENERGY AS STUDENTS WELCOMED LORD GANESH WITH UTMOST DEVOTION. LONG BEFORE THE IDOL INSTALLATION, RHYTHMIC DHOL BEATS ECHOED ACROSS THE GROUNDS, PULLING EVERYONE INTO A SPONTANEOUS, HIGH-SPIRITED DANCE CIRCLE. SURROUNDED BY BLOOMING MARIGOLDS AND CHANTS OF GANPATI BAPPA MORYA, THE BDBH STUDENTS' SHEER ENTHUSIASM SET A DEEPLY JOYOUS TONE FOR THE FESTIVITIES, BLENDING TRADITION WITH UNFORGETTABLE YOUTHFUL MEMORIES

A MESSAGE FOR THE STUDENTS BY THE PRINCIPAL AND THE VICE PRINCIPAL

DEAR STUDENTS,

HALF-YEARLY EXAMS ARE FINALLY UPON US, PRESENTING A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY TO IMPROVE YOUR ACADEMIC JOURNEY. INSTEAD OF LETTING PRESSURE OVERWHELM YOU, CHANNEL YOUR FOCUS TOWARD STEADY PREPARATION AND THOUGHTFUL REVISION. BETTER PERFORMANCE COMES NATURALLY WHEN YOU APPROACH EACH CHALLENGE WITH A CALM, CLEAR MINDSET.

PRINCIPAL

Lt Col. Avinash Singh

Mr. Shivendra Nath Shah Deo

Dear Students,

As the half-yearly exams approach, remembRer that challenges are stepping stones to success, not roadblocks. Stay focused, believe in your potential, and give it your absolute best. Approach every paper with confidence and a calm mind.

Wishing you all tremendous success. Thrive and shine!

Vice Principal

Managing Stress Before the Half-Yearly Examinations :-

Remember that a calm mind performs best. When pressure builds, pause to take a few deep breaths, step away from your books for a brief walk, and ensure you get adequate sleep each night. Consistency and a clear head will carry you through far better than last-minute panic. Trust your preparation!

With best wishes for your examinations
