RCNH - Literary and Art's Fest 2026

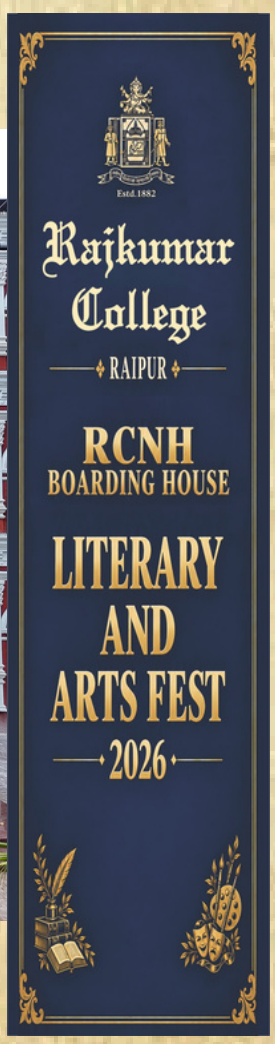

A Celebration of Words, Talent and Artistic Brilliance

"Creativity is intelligence having fun, and art is the beautiful expression of the imagination."

The RCNH Literary and Arts Fest 2026 was a vibrant celebration of creativity, talent and self-expression, bringing together the literary and artistic spirit of the RCNH Boarding House. The event provided students with an enriching platform to explore their imagination, express their ideas and demonstrate their abilities across a spectrum of literary, performing and visual arts.

Math Play - Class X

The fest witnessed an exciting array of events, each offering students an opportunity to step into the spotlight and showcase their individual talents. The intellectual and creative spirit came alive through Math Play, followed by an engaging Poem Recitation by the students of MP House and Classes VI and VII.
